

First Annual Petersham Scarecrow Contest

Scarecrows are coming to Petersham! They will hover in front of the Library and on the lawn of the Unitarian Church from Oct. 27 through November 3. Awards will be given for the funniest, scariest, most original, greenist, etc., with one grand prize winner.

Set up will take place on Sat, Oct 26 from 9-11 with winners announced on Sun, Oct 27 at noon. Stakes provided or bring your own set up. The contest is open to Petersham residents, students, town committees and departments (fire, police, selectboard, etc.)

Creativity and fun for all! Questions? Email: petershamculturalcouncil@gmail.com

Sponsored by the Petersham Cultural Council and Mass Cultural Council.
